SAINTS NATIONALLY RANKED IN TWO POLLS

For the seventh straight week the Thomas More College football team is ranked in both Division III Top-25 polls. The Saints received 640 votes in the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Top-25 poll and are ranked No. 10 in the nation. In the web site D3football.com's Top-25, the Saints are receiving 344 votes and are ranked No. 11 in the nation.

SAINTS' RUSHING TOPS IN THE PAC

The Thomas More rushing attack and rushing defense are both ranked first in the PAC as the Saints average 197.5 yards rushing a game and the defense knows how to stop the rush as it holds its opponents to only 51.5 yards rushing per game. The Saints were ranked No. 2 in the nation last week in rushing defense according to the NCAA's Division III statistics.

NCAA APPEARANCES

Thomas More is making its fourth appearance in the NCAA Division III Championships since starting football in 1990 and will make its first-ever back-to-back appearances this season. The Saints made the Championship in 1992 when they traveled to Emory & Henry College, in 2001 when they hosted MacMurray College and Wittenberg University and in 2008 when they traveled to North Central (Ill.) College.

PAC HONORS STEINMETZ, HILVERT AND 19 SAINTS

Thomas More senior linebacker was named Presidents' Athletic Conference Player of the Year and head coach Jim Hilvert was named Coach of the Year, while 19 other Saints were named All-PAC. The PAC all-conference teams can be found on the internet at www.pacathletics.org/fballpac09.pdf.
