

2023 SUMMER SEMINAR SERIES

at the
THOMAS MORE UNIVERSITY
BIOLOGY FIELD STATION

7:00-8:00 PM
The Lodge
8330 Mary Ingles Highway
California, KY 41007

Join us and explore a diverse range of topics of importance to environmental conservation, education, and stewardship efforts.

June 7

Brian Storz, PhD

Licking River Basin Coordinator, Kentucky Division of Water

"Clean Water Act, Impaired Waters, and You"

June 21

Michelle King

Fisheries Biologist, KY Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources

"Propagation and Culture of 4 Species of Endangered Freshwater Mussels"

June 26

Kaitlyn Hines

Research Assistant, USEPA

"Remediation, Restoration, and Revitalization Effectiveness Research at Great Lakes Areas of Concern"

July 12

Sarah Segars, MS

Public Information & Outreach Specialist, ORSANCO

"Working Curiously: Creating a career you love in biological sciences"

July 20

Jeff Goessling, PhD

Assistant Biology Professor, Eckerd College

"Temperate stream to island desert: an ongoing journey in reptile conservation, research, and education"