

Questions

1. How is a floodplain formed and how does this process make floodplains good farmland?

2. What is a riparian zone and how does it act as a "buffer region?" How does this function help to keep the river system healthy?

3. How might the destruction of riparian zones damage the floodplain ecosystem? Should we be worried about the destruction of riparian zones? Why or why not?
